75TH ANNIVERSARY

Seventy-five years sounds like a long time. Many things can happen in 75 years—world powers can juggle their strength, a nation can grow into a giant of freedom, a baby can enter the golden years of old age. A school celebrating its diamond anniversary sounds like an old school. But after three quarters of a century Broad Ripple High School is still young, looking to a bright future which will reflect the growth and tradition of a rich past.

The seeds of Ripple's past were sown in 1837, the year in which Hoosier pioneers founded the Broad Ripple community. BRHS dates back to 1886, when Mr. J. S. Puett instructed seven pupils in a course of five subjects. Despite a fire in 1896, Ripple grew rapidly. (See lower picture taken in 1925).

During World War I, the armed forces claimed many Ripple boys, but not even the war could halt the school's progress. Mr. Karl Von Ammerman, who became principal in 1923, proudly called Ripple "the baby grand of Indianapolis."

As the community developed into a metropolitan area, the school building expanded to provide for Ripple's ever-growing needs. (See upper picture taken in 1961). Ripple became a leader scholastically and physically, in classes and activities.

Seventy-five years have passed, bringing honors and achievements, improvements and advancements, and leaving behind cherished memories and traditions.

BROAD RIPPLE HIGH SCHOOL

THROUGH THE YEARS

First hung in 1883, the Ripple Bell was once a vital part of life at Broad Ripple. It called pupils to classes until 1914, when it began a long "hibernation" in the basement of the cottage. In 1955 the bell was rescued from abandonment, re-dedicated, and given a place of honor in the main hall of the old building. Another symbol of the past is the old Broad Ripple Inter-Urban Station. Today this building stands as a landmark of historical significance and serves an active purpose as an American Legion hall.

Though trains still pass the Broad Ripple Monon Station at regular intervals, it is no longer needed as a stopping point for passengers. In its present role as the Whistle Stop Sausage House, the onetime depot adds provincial charm to the area. Now boarded up, the original entrance to the oldest part of the building is an ever-present reminder of the school's swift growth. This entrance has not been used for many years, and it is virtually unknown to most Broad Ripple pupils and teachers.

Gateway to athletic triumphs, the Edgar F. Diederich monument is a popular gathering place and an entrance to the Diederich Memorial Field. The field, dedicated in 1951 to the memory of Mr. Diederich, former coach and athletic director, is the scene of Ripple football and track events. One other landmark on the school grounds is the time-worn sundial, located on the northwest corner of the front lawn. The sundial, an anonymous gift donated in 1936, is engraved with designs and quotations.

Progressing with the times, the Ripple community does not neglect public interest in history. The outmoded Nickel Plate Railroad engine which rests in Broad Ripple Park is open for public inspection, and children delight in viewing the workings of the locomotive. Summer and winter, Broad Ripple villagers of all ages enjoy the park's Olympic-sized swimming pool. Many other recreational facilities attracted crowds to the grounds when they housed an amusement park as early as 1889.

Spirit turns well of tradition into fountain of youth

Utilizing the switchboard in the new office section, Mrs. Sara Powell transfers a call to one of the administrative offices.

Three generations of school leaders share common loyalties and goals. Principal J. Fred Murphy and Senior Class officers Dave Cranfill and Peg Ballard admire a portrait of Mr. Karl Von Ammerman, former principal who led Ripple through critical years.

Some things never change — the joy of youth, the warmth of friendship, the thirst for knowledge, the spirit of competition. Other things must change; 75 years of active life and bustling activity create the need and the means for many changes. Those things which do not alter ease the transition between old and new. At Ripple the new joins the old gracefully, with lasting values of a rich heritage bridging the years.

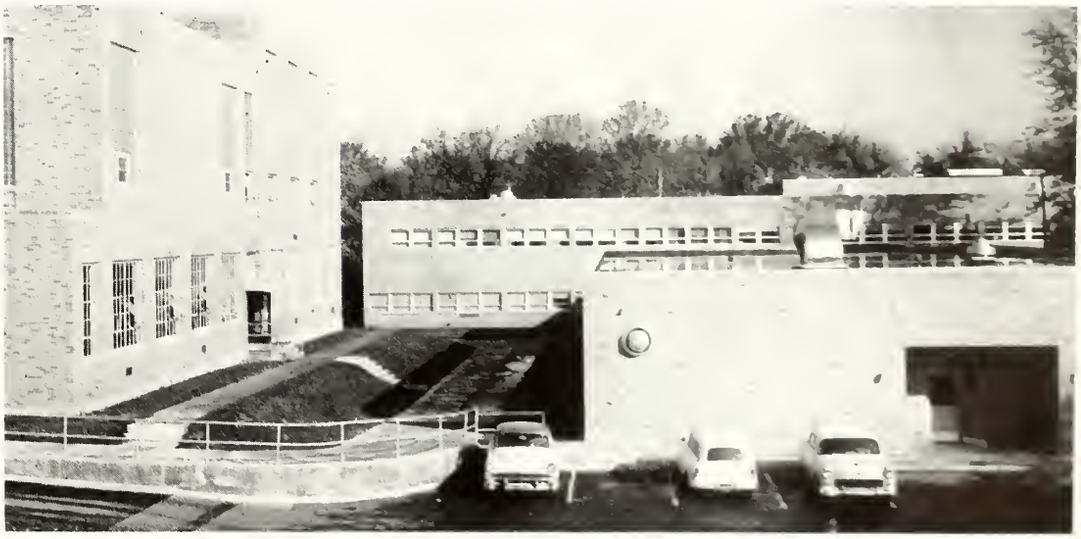
Physical failure often comes with age, but Ripple's facilities defy her years. Well-equipped physically, Ripple moves ahead in the realm of new ideas. Old, time-tried theories serve as bases for fresh attitudes and methods. The stream of enthusiasm that flows through Ripple produces not only new ideas, but also new honors.

Broad Ripple is an old — yet a young — school. The old mellows the new, and the new stands proudly by the old as Ripple becomes 75 years young.

Starting the day with a friendly chat, Polly Colvin and Mrs. Edna-Mae Ross enter school together.

Regardless of its wintry transformation, lettering on a corner of the building's new wing proclaims Ripple's name to passers-by.

Bearing strong resemblance to a modern industrial plant, Broad Ripple High School's shop wing and cafeteria present a striking view of the school. Each morning this aspect of Ripple greets pupils and teachers who use the ample parking space in the Compton Street lot.



"Oh, What a Beautiful Mornin'" it is for the entire "Oklahoma!" cast as they rejoice with Laurey, Avis Settles, and Curly, Dick Emery, at the production's close.

Maestros of the show, accompanist Mary Jo Bush and directors Mr. Gene Poston, Mrs. Rosalee Hofmann, and Miss Ruth Bertsch, review musical arrangements.

Picnic plans dominate the discussion of Westerners Peggy Ballard, Marilyn Henzie, Ken Bierman, and Rob Payne.

Golden Singers journey west for "Oklahoma!"

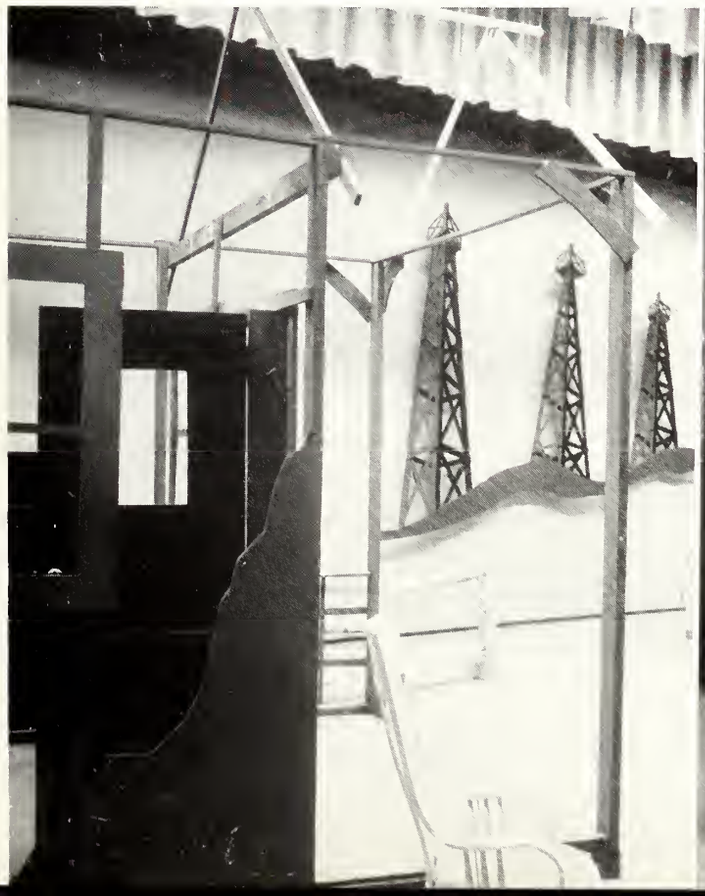
Tricks enter an honest trade as Dave Johnson buys a deceptive knife from unsuspecting Jay Platte.

"All Er Nothin' " was not only a song in the Golden Singers' production of "Oklahoma!" but also the slogan of the cast and orchestra, who spent many hours rehearsing the musical. Striving for polished performances November 16 and 18, pupils combined their abilities with the talents of Rodgers and Hammerstein to bring the Old West to Ripple.

Pioneer spirit enhances the liveliness of the story, which centers around the romance of Curly, a cowboy played by Dick Emery, and Laurey, a young beauty portrayed by Avis Settles. Amiable Aunt Eller, Jo Ellen Spahr, smiles on Curly and Laurey, but sullen handyman Jud Fry, Dave Johnson, threatens the couple's happiness. Ado Annie Carnes, Peggy Ballard, with her plaintive cry of "I Cain't Say No," and her admirers, energetic cowpoke Will Parker, played by Rob Payne, and Ali Hakim, a clever peddler portrayed by Jay Platte, create interest and add to the color and comedy of the show, a record-breaking Broadway success.

Faculty personnel who advised the pupils were Mr. Gene Poston, music director; Miss Ruth Bertsch, dramatic director, and Mrs. Rosalee Hofmann, production manager. Mr. Ferd Brumblay and Mr. Virgel Clark managed stage sets and lighting while Mr. Paul Brown and Mr. Clovys Harvey acted as sound technician and business manager, respectively.

Looming in the background of the set, oil derricks evidence the rich resources of the 46th state.



Animating the simple setting, Jo Ellen Spahr, Avis Settles, and Dick Emery greet each other in melody.

Perplexed by packing problems, Pam Hatfield and Ana Maria Labat ponder luggage restrictions.

Identical spirit and familiar customs, such as gift-giving, make Christmas in America exciting for Ana.

Foreign flavor excites

"Smile!" urges Ana Maria, and the Stantons grin at the camera for a portrait which Ana hopes to keep as a reminder of her American family.

Days to remember fill the thoughts of Kathy Bloem, who is surrounded by souvenirs of her trip to Germany.

tastes of AFSers on missions of understanding

Passports become tickets to adventure, fun, and learning for American Field Service students. Two Ripple pupils took part in the AFS program as Broad Ripple welcomed its fifth exchange student, Ana Maria Labat from Mendoza, Argentina.

Studying in a foreign language and participating in school activities kept Ana Maria busy. A temporary member of the Frank V. Stanton family, the sixteen-year-old senior took part in Orange Aid, Student Council, Golden Singers, Tri-Hi-Y, Booster Club, and Stamp and Coin Club. Since she was Ripple's first AFS student from a South American country, Ana taught much to interested Ripplites.

Assuming the role of a foreigner, Pam Hatfield spent last summer in Istanbul, where she grew to appreciate Turkish customs. The Ishmail Turgut Ozkurts, Pam's hosts, treated her to many typical diversions, such as swimming in the Bosporus.

Kathy Bloem, the first Ripple pupil to take part in the AFS six-month study program, attended school in Germany during the fall semester. The language barrier, a hindrance in classes at first, soon gave way to understanding during Kathy's stay with the Dr. Leopold Homola family.

South of the equator fashions are quite different from the heavy coat Ana views with interest.

Intent on his goal, a bright-eyed youngster prepares to hurl a baseball in one of the carnival's club-sponsored game booths. Boys and girls from grade schools in the Broad Ripple vicinity support their future school while they entertain themselves with games and shows aimed to please every age group.

Mapping a parade route, Home-coming Chairman Dee Stanton points to the path for floats to follow along Broad Ripple Avenue.

Aglow with startled delight, Home-coming Queen Sally Harker follows her ROTC escort, Larry Harmon, off the football field.

Spinning carrousel of festivities brightens year

Stepping onto a merry-go-round of social activity, Ripplites began a gay whirl with the fourteenth annual Riparian Dance. Sparkling decorations gave the diamond jubilee theme glittering emphasis. Publications subscribers chose Miss and Mr. Riparian to reign over the dance, which marked the end of the Riparian subscription campaign and the beginning of the year's semi-formal dances.

Colorful Home-coming put the entire school in a spin of float-constructing, parading, and cheering. A morning pep session and an afternoon pageantry ceremony, at which the Student Council president announced five queen finalists, added new customs to Home-coming tradition. As in past years, mums sold by Council members adorned many girls' dresses at the after-school parade, the exciting game, and the festive post-game dance.

"Circus Capers," the Association of Parents and Teachers Carnival, added fun to the busy cycle. With the circus came a jazz concert, style show, talent show, and many food concessions and booths. These features attracted Ripple families to come spend their dimes at the annual carnival. The APT's only fund-raising event, this affair also boosts incomes of clubs which participate.

Newsworthy notables Peggy Ballard and Dave Gilliom steal the Riparian spotlight after being named Miss and Mr. Riparian at "Our Diamond Jubilee."

"Best ever" is the goal for Pam Lassiter, chairman of the Riparian Dance, as she attends to the countless details that comprise her job.

Pots and pans are no problem for Louise Stout, whose homemaking skill won her the Betty Crocker Award.

"Big chiefs" Bob Forsythe, Pam Hatfield, and Andy McCuen survey clippings in the Riparian scrapbook.

All-American boy Randy Minniear, ranked all-state in football, admires his Kiwanis trophies.

Anniversary year keeps

Pride comes before the fall (autumn, that is) for Ripplites who win awards in the summer. Early honors from journalism and science institutes preceded a rise, not a decline, in Ripple's 75th year.

Following summer winners, nine pupils began the year as National Merit Scholarship semi-finalists and qualified as finalists after further testing.

The close of the football season opened the way to fame for Randy Minniear, who was cited as best halfback and most valuable player in the city by the Kiwanis Club, and 12 other gridsters, who were recognized by Kiwanis and the city newspapers.

Later in the year Seniors Pam Hatfield and Bob Forsythe became government officials for a day, and Andy McCuen acted as editor of the Indianapolis Times. Another senior, Louise Stout, was Ripple's winner in the Betty Crocker Homemaker Contest.

pace with Broad Ripple's steady climb to fame

Success stories from summer institutes circulate among award winners Beth Davis, Jane Clay, Roger Winters, Tom Royer, Mark Minton, Dee Stanton, M'Lou Gilbert, and Trude Bennett.

Freedom's light reflects from the award Ken Younger displays to Mr. Paul Brown and Mr. J. Fred Murphy.

Money matters demand the attention of Mr. J. Raymond Hall and Bill Stone, Historical Society president.

Shifting seasons precipitate shower of honors

Best foot forward, Brian Smith leaves for a safety check, equipped with Mr. Harold Harding's advice.

As the world turned and seasons changed, many other pupils gained recognition.

Junior Brian Smith, who was elected first president of Broad Ripple's Safety Council, began representing the group when he accompanied Mr. Harold K. Harding to the National Student Traffic Safety Convention in Kansas last August.

Her excellency in civics, history, and English won the Ripple Daughters of the American Revolution Good Citizenship Award for Pam Lassiter.

History came alive for Senior Ken Younger and Mr. Paul Brown, who toured Washington, Philadelphia, Valley Forge, and Fort McHenry on the Freedoms Foundation Pilgrimage for representatives of prize-winning American schools.

Another pupil with an interest in history, Bill Stone, served as state and school president of Junior Historical Society.

Logomachists and orators entered the workings of government at the Purdue Legislative Assembly and emerged with top honors. Four legislators and one panel discussion entrant from Broad Ripple won awards. Voicing her opinions on the American way of life, Junior Trude Bennett distinguished herself as city winner of the Voice of Democracy Contest.

Tumbling from a cornucopia, symbols of the fruits of freedom represent democratic ideals and principles to DAR winner Pam Lassiter.

Research and resources combine to create Trude Bennett's speech.

75TH ANNIVERSARY

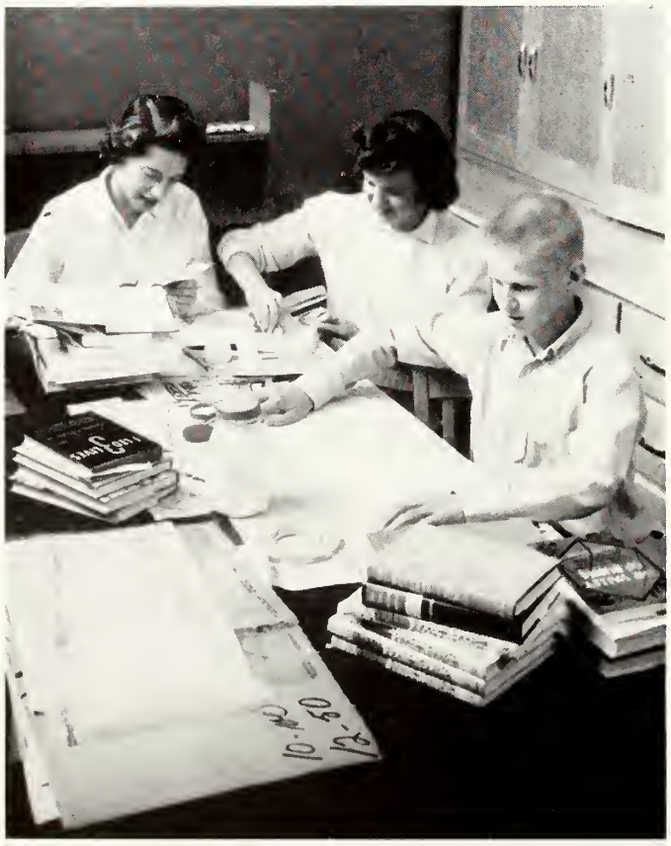
In the past 75 years man has enlightened the world with startling new knowledge, yet the basic goals of education remain the same. A desire to arouse mental curiosity and produce an intelligent society has always been the force behind Ripple classes. Although the spirit of the classroom has not altered, there have been notable changes in classroom techniques and equipment. Ripple's curriculum has widened its scope to a great extent since the first 4-year course was inaugurated in 1890. The number of available courses reached 38 in 1920, 76 in 1942, and 225 in 1962.

ACADEMICS

Quiet reigns in Ripple's new library, where pleasant surroundings expedite the search for knowledge.

New realms in the world of reading open to Broad Ripple pupils who gain speed and accuracy from two semesters of instruction in the reading laboratory.

Common goal of communication unites English



"Whan that Aprille with his shourës sootë . . . " may sound foreign, but this quote from Chaucer's The Canterbury Tales is Old English. Pupils find that English and foreign languages have more than sounds in common. Study in these closely related fields aids pupils in their command of many tongues and their knowledge of diversified literature.

All pupils find their proper levels in Broad Ripple's varied English courses. Besides English I-VIII, which deal with grammar, composition, and literature, classes ranging from Advanced Composition to Speech and Dramatics are available.

Etymology, the study of derivatives, ties English studies to the foreign language courses, French, German, Spanish, and Latin. The language laboratory helps pupils use living languages fluently. Even ancient Latin yields to comprehension as beginners prepare for involved translations. Latin is far from dead for advanced Latin pupils who take breaks from hard work to hold Roman parties.

Papers and books litter the library science worktable of Sara Compton, Susie Cooper, and Dean Craft.

Under the watchful eye of Miss Helle Ajango, Dick Griggs tests his skill in the language laboratory.

and foreign languages

"Love" is the root being studied by Etymology pupils Janet Brown and Stuart Engelberg.

Proofreading Riparian Copy are English IIIg pupils Lee Seldon, Suzi Pels, and Katie Tilford.

Once a treacherous weapon, a sword from the Civil War is only a symbol of the war's centennial commemoration to Bill Salter and Esther Rees.

"Fairy tale or satire?" Government pupil Steve Schubert gets a glimpse of communist principles from a caustic view in George Orwell's Animal Farm.

Cardboard study aids and a flannel board illustrate principles of Economics to Seniors Lynne Fichman and Roger Wallace.

Reviewing Indiana government are Hoosier State delegates Jane Clay, Andy McCuen, and Tom Merrill.

Journeys into history lead to striking lessons of the past and thrilling challenges of history-in-the-making. Pupils travel through the ages and around the globe using social studies as a vehicle.

Voyagers through world and United States history view exploration, conflict, and great progress in the development of human civilization and American society. Government and Economics pupils venture into the U.S. political system and economy.

Touring vital spots of today's complex world, pupils study Pan American and Contemporary History and International Relations. Geography teaches land and climate conditions, important travel factors.

Psychology does not acquaint pupils with faraway lands, but with men's minds and motivations. Cadet Teaching leads seniors to the world of children and lets them explore a future career field.

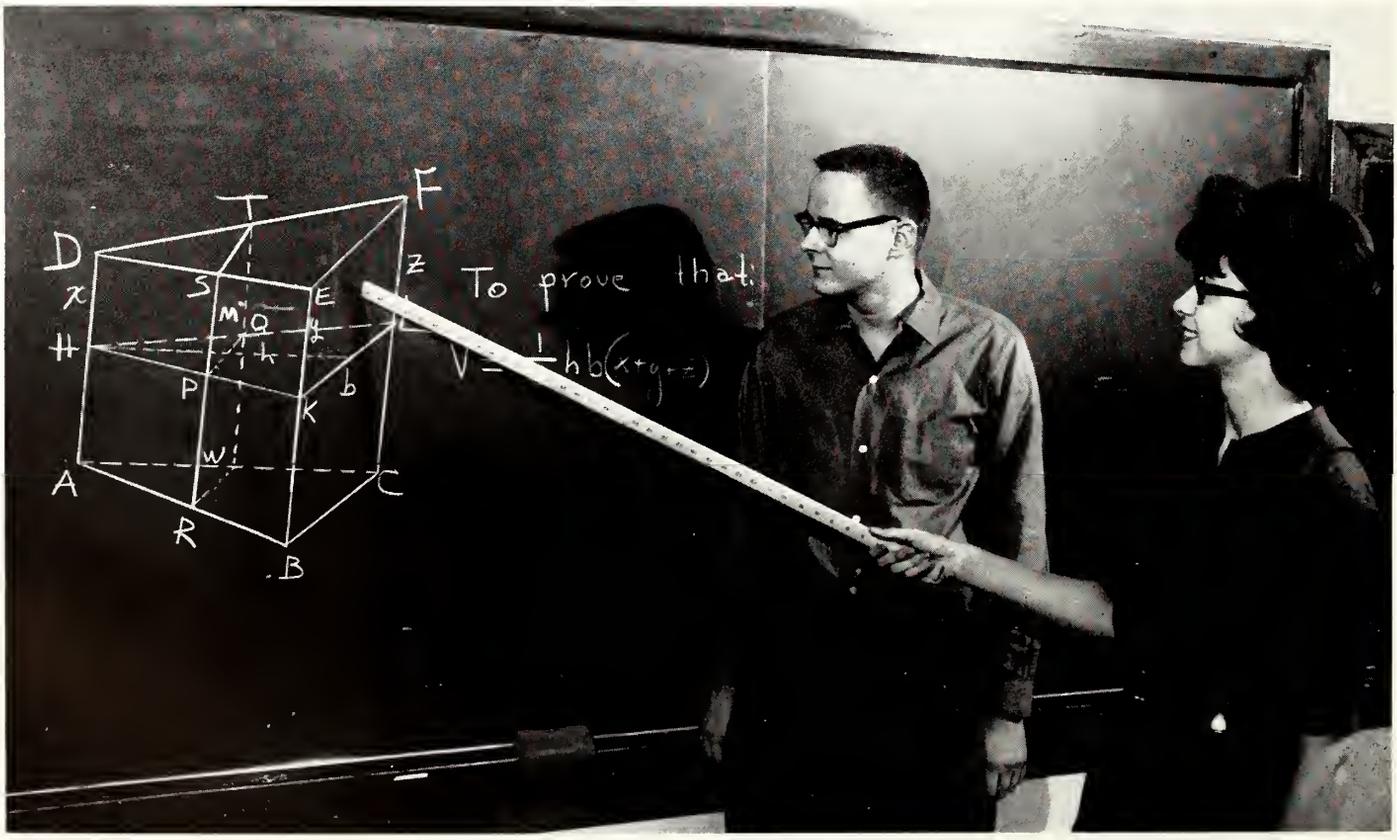
Historical travel sheds barriers of time, distance

Modern conveniences invade the classroom! Mrs. Ruth Woods and her audio-visual U.S. History class view the past through an experimental television program.

Faultless typing is among the business education skills of NOMA spelling award winner Betty Bush.

Presto! A mimeographing machine handled by Typing III pupil Penny Huddleston produces perfect copies.

Trial classes, fresh ideas



Just plane geometry is not a sufficient mathematical challenge for Ken Bierman and Louise Stout, who demonstrate a proof to their Solid Geometry class.

Dead bugs are the only good bugs in an insect collection! Biology teacher Mr. William Jessee inspects collections of Don Hamilton, Merri Mueller, and Astra Rozite.

display progressive spirit in math, science, business

Progress is the most important product of far-sighted planning on the part of the Mathematics, Science, and Business Education Departments.

Two experimental freshman algebra classes, which incorporate the fundamentals of modern mathematics, typify strides being made to keep the Math Department tuned with the times. Ripple offers the state maximum of 12 courses from elementary algebra to analytical college studies.

New theories are subject to testing in the scientific field in an experimental chemistry class. Frogs and formulas, plants and problems make up the science courses, biology, physical science, chemistry, and physics.

Fulfilling a community need by training young men and women for the business world, the Business Department uses up-to-date methods and equipment. Typing, shorthand, and nine other subjects prepare pupils for part-time jobs and life careers.

Talents, skills grow keen in fine and practical arts

Busy as bees, Sharon Hawley and Sharon Howlett assure a trim fit by pinning a "dress-to-be" on a clothing dummy in a home economics class.

Odors of freshly-baked cookies and the hum of sewing machines float from the home economics rooms as pupils learn homemaking skills. Girls studying foods learn that tempting meals require careful planning and preparation. Clothing courses stress not only sewing skills, but also the importance of personal grooming. Looking ahead, Family Living pupils study human relations and life problems.

Careers in engineering, architecture, and other skilled trades await industrial arts pupils. Accuracy is the prime requisite for good work in mechanical drawing. Precision is also necessary for successful metal and wood shop projects.

Future artists and craftsmen analyze their abilities and strive to perfect their talents in Broad Ripple High School's art and music classes. Pupils in general art, ceramics, jewelry, craft art, and photography gain skills which prove invaluable to school groups that enlist their aid.

Music-makers use well-tuned instruments and trained voices to perform for school and community. The marching band struts at football games, and the orchestra plays from the pit in the new auditorium. Vocal music groups from Chorus I to Madrigals learn to create melodious harmony.

Delighted families receive industrial arts projects such as Tim Stanfill's king-size jewelry box.

Light, camera, and attention focus on the subject of photography pupils Susannah Fitch and Don Dawson.

Concentration marks the faces of John Fattic and Jeff Endicott as they operate an electric saw.

Departure time is near for Choir members preparing to leave for a program. Packing the car for the trip are Gary Hoile, Pat Hogan, Scotta Flaningam, Edy Comfort, Brandt Downey, and Ilse Bried.

Playing with fire is no more dangerous than using firearms without proper knowledge. Robin Dolson points out parts of a rifle to ROTC boys watching an instructive film.

ROTC, gym keep pupils healthy in body, wealthy

Safety comes first for pupils developing strong bodies and cautious habits in ROTC, physical education, Health, and Driver Education.

ROTC Rifle Team members learn to handle firearms with care under the direction of SFC Richard Stoe. Receiving basic military training, ROTC boys march in the Armed Forces Day Parade, practice drill tactics. and learn to respect authority.

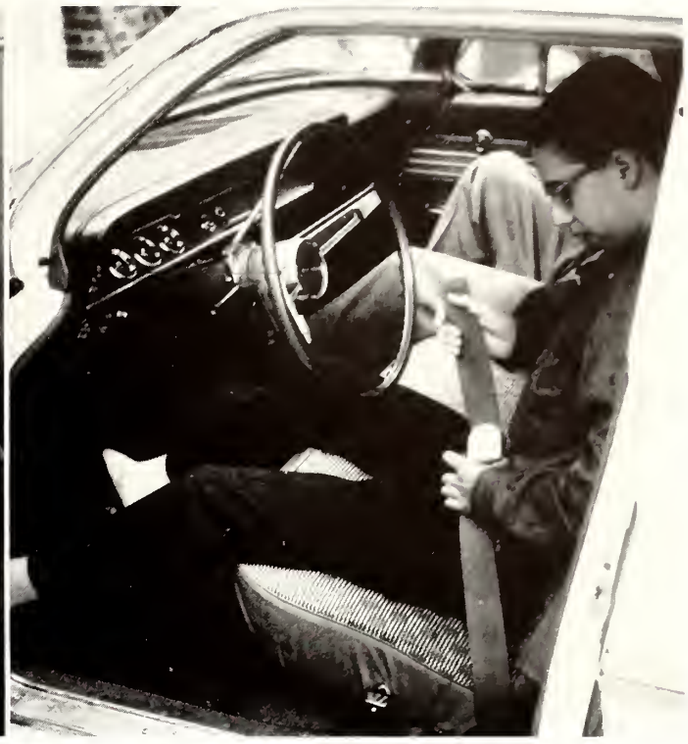
Conditioning exercises, athletic games, and tumbling occupy physical education pupils building well-balanced, healthy bodies.

Girls in Health classes learn to cope with emergencies by using Red Cross methods, and all Health pupils gain an understanding of body functions, the key to healthful living.

Driver Education teachers stress safety to pupils who become skilled in driving techniques through behind-the-wheel instruction.

Poised for action, Anne Brafford, Nancy Davis, Cindy New, and Karen Girdler await the signal to begin a scooter race in physical education.

No substitute for a balanced diet, candy has value in quick energy for Tom Woody and Steve Trager.



"Fasten your seat belt!" is the first command Howard Gurvitz follows for a safe driving lesson.

in training, wise in safety

Bodies taut and legs high, Kenny Irwin and Dave Comrie balance on the parallel bars in gym class.

"Say ahhh!" instructs Miss Louise Rice, Ripple's school nurse, to her patient, Linda Caffee.

Peek in school operation

Behind the scenes of a smoothly running school are hard-working administrators and counselors.

Broad Ripple's principal, Mr. J. Fred Murphy, is the school's chief administrative officer. Mr. Murphy supervises the activities, curriculum, and various staffs working in the school. He helps establish and enforces school policies in accord with the Board of School Commissioners and acts as Ripple's representative at special programs and before accrediting associations. His services benefit not only Broad Ripple, but also the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools, of which he is president.

Mr. Harold K. Harding, vice-principal, works with Mr. Murphy and serves as school treasurer. In addition to his fiscal duties, Mr. Harding is chairman of the Safety Council, teacher delegate to the APT, and an authorized notary public.

Communications and curriculum duties occupy Vice-principal Roger Riley, who prepares the daily announcements, assumes general direction of the annual Ripples, and takes responsibility for planning class schedules and the course of study.

Colorful flowers set a background for Principal J. Fred Murphy as he reflects on Ripple's future.

Included in Vice-principal Roger Riley's daily mail are credits of transfer pupils for his evaluation.

reveals vital role of administrators and counselors

Recognizing high school as a beginning, not an end, Mr. Albert R. Mahin and Mr. Robert J. Bryant consult on the responsibilities of senior counseling.

A new, streamlined guidance program, headed by Mr. Robert J. Bryant, creates closer communication between pupils and counselors. Eight qualified instructors now devote more time to advising each pupil in making plans for a high school program and college and career choices. This year Mr. Albert Mahin and Miss Melba Schumacher aided seniors, who composed the first class to graduate under the four-diploma plan. Mr. Dale Hamner and Mr. Arnold Pahmeier gave advice to juniors, and Mrs. Maenell Newsome and Mr. Edward O'Nan guided sophomores. Miss Marie Sullivan and Miss Barbara Vargo helped freshmen get a successful start in high school. Additional guidance for Ripplites comes from Mrs. Rosalind Ewing, dean of girls, and Mr. Warren K. Jackson, dean of boys.

Pride lights the faces of Mr. Riley and Mr. Harding as they present Mr. Murphy with a gavel honoring him as president of the NCACSS.

School scene gains spirit from faculty sponsorship

75TH ANNIVERSARY

Loyal boosters of an old school give warm support to Ripple athletes, who play with the same youthful energy that has resulted in victory through the years. Early basketball triumphs came in 1928, when Ripple won the Sectional, and in 1945, when the Rockets went to the State. Of Ripple's 18 consecutive winning seasons, 4 have been City Championship years. Recent basketball, golf, and wrestling achievements in state-wide competition and successful seasons in baseball, football, track, cross country, and tennis won the 1960 Times All-Sports Trophy for Broad Ripple.

ATHLETICS

Spirits are high as Ripple's football team returns to the field after half-time activities.

Individual effort pays off with track success

by Mike Cronin

Guided by a new coach, Mr. Robert Ludlow, Ripple's 1961 track team posted a 1-7 record in dual and triangular meets but placed well in some of the larger meets. The Rockets were fourth in their Sectional Meet, eighth in their Regional Meet, and sixth in the City Meet, April 27. Ripple cindermen won two trophies: one from the Hoosier Relays, the other from their own invitational meet.

Indiana University's fieldhouse was the site of the Hoosier Relays at the end of March. Broad Ripple's entry, composed of Dave Snapp, Bob Cambridge, Tom Corson, and Dick Crowell, gained an over-all second in the distance medley relay (half-quarter-quarter-mile). The two-mile relay team, consisting of Cambridge, Snapp, Crowell, and Mike Cronin, was only 2.8 seconds off the 8:21.4 meet record and copped an over-all first in this event.

In the first outdoor meet of the season, April 4, the Rockets finished on the short end of an 88-45-20 score; Anderson and North Central finished first and second, respectively. Snapp in the half-mile, Cambridge in the quarter-mile, and Bill Chrissinger in the high jump took Ripple's firsts.

Dual meets at Southport and Howe were scenes of defeat for the Rockets. On April 11 the Cardinals beat the Ripple team, 74-35. On Friday, April 14, the cindermen were downed by the Hornets, 68-41. Bright spots were first places won in these meets by Chrissinger, Snapp, Cambridge, and shot putter John Vaughn.

The following Monday the Rockets took an easy win from the weak Pike Township team, 81-28. Ripple harriers made a clean sweep in four events and took all but two of the available first places.

Tech overcame the Rockets, 71½-37½; however, Snapp and Cambridge set the season's fastest times in the half- and quarter-mile with respective times of 1:59.3 and 0:50.8. Sophomore Mike Ryan won the mile race in 4:42.9, and the mile relay team, Bill Hazel, Cronin, Snapp, and Cambridge, ran a 3:38.1, which was good for first place and the fastest time in the city.

Cambridge and Snapp became City Champs in the quarter- and half-mile as the Ripple team finished sixth in the City Meet. Broad Ripple's other points were contributed by Ryan's fourth and the two relay teams' fifth places in their races.

May Day was VanArsdale Day for Manual as they overcame Ripple 71-38. The VanArsdale twins together amassed 37 points. Ryan, Snapp, Cambridge, and the mile relay team collected all the honors for Ripple by winning firsts in their events.

Shortridge won the team title and half-mile relay trophies at the Broad Ripple Invitational. Although the Rockets' 39 points earned only third place behind the Washington Continentals' 40 points and the Blue Devils' 51 points, the Ripple team set three new meet records and won the mile relay trophy. The mile relay team, Snapp, Cambridge, Cronin, and Lopez, set a meet record of 3:32.0.

Broad Ripple qualified four runners for the Regional Meet. Miler Mike Ryan copped second in the Sectional Meet, and Cambridge captured third place in the quarter-mile. Snapp was Ripple's lone place winner as he set a new Sectional mark in the half of 1:57.4 and then went on to place sixth in the State Meet. Ryan gained a fifth in the Regional but did not qualify for the State.

Dashing over the line, Dave Snapp finishes first in the City Meet and sets a new record. Snapp also set records in the Sectional and Regional Meets.

The two final meets of the season were underclass meets, both of which proved unsuccessful. In the first meet Shortridge and North Central overpowered Ripple as the Blue Devils gained 69 points, the Panthers, 40, and the Rockets, 26. Ripple then finished in the middle of the five-team City-County Underclass Meet.

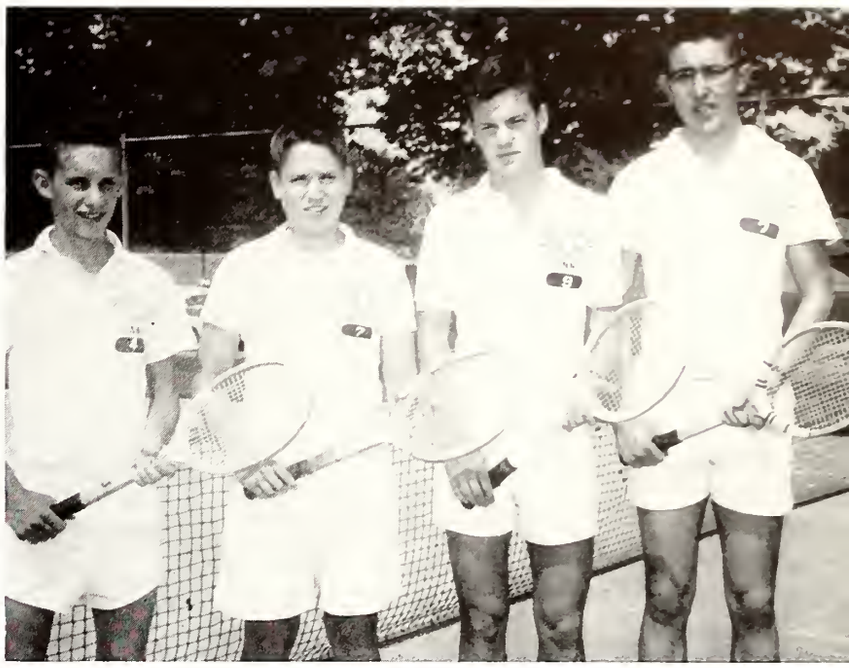
Racketmen display strength in City Tourney

by Andy McCuen

Hoping to win a place in the City Tournament, Ole Christensen runs to meet the ball in time.



Varsity Tennis—Jerry Ungerman, Stan Cleveland, Ole Christensen, Tom Krudy.

For the second year, the Broad Ripple racketmen displayed the full force of their winning ability in the all-important City Tourney. In addition to copping third place honors in this event on May 25, the varsity squad, coached by Mr. Robert Hougham, achieved a 5-6 record for the season.

Jerry Ungerman led the Rocket team in the City Meet by finishing as the runner-up medalist in the fourth singles. In his first match he defeated an opponent from Scecina; in the semi-finals he took the two-out-of-three set winning margin from his Cathedral opposition. In the finals, Ungerman was defeated by a player from the Tech squad and had to settle for second place honors.

Stan Cleveland, Ole Christensen, and Tom Krudy, the number 2, 3, and 5 men, respectively, also earned valuable points by gaining recognition as semi-finalists. Dave Barnes also qualified for the semi-finals, but was unable to play because of a back injury suffered during the first day of the tourney. Barnes filled the first position on the varsity team prior to his injury.

The rest of the season was rewarding to the netters as they gained victories over five city teams. Manual lost by a shut-out April 27. Howe, Shortridge, Attucks, and Warren Central composed the remainder of the defeated list. The team lost to North Central and Park early in May.

Stan Cleveland posted the best season record of 8-11. He was followed by Dave Barnes with five wins and Ole Christensen, Ripple's foreign exchange student, with four victories.

The best doubles record of the season was acquired by the team of Barnes and Cleveland, who, in addition to posting wins with other teammates, had five wins as partners.

The tennis team showed quite an improvement over the 1960 squad, which had a record of one win and seven losses. Returning racketmen from 1960 were Barnes, Ungerman, and Cleveland.

Broad Ripple's hustling baseball team, praised by a city sportswriter as the "Yankees" of city high school baseball, completed another highly successful season. Coach Frank Baird combined good pitching with a tight defense to lead the Rockets to a 12-1-1 record and a second in the city.

Ripple opened the season late in April against the Lawrence Central Bears with an impressive 17-3 win. Next the Zionsville Eagles were routed, mainly by Gary Hafner's excellent pitching, 11-2. Twelve runs, scored in the second inning of the Scecina game, April 24, gave Broad Ripple an easy 16-1 victory; and, in the next game, the Anderson Indians fell by a score of 1-0. Ripple then traveled to Howe and defeated the Hornets, 5-2. Dave Cranfill led the team offensively with two doubles.

The Rockets continued their winning streak May 1 by defeating Manual, 11-0. In a one-sided battle on May 3, the Rockets beat Crispus Attucks, 16-1. Minniear and Sharlow teamed up on the pitcher's

The game between Broad Ripple and Cathedral ended in a 4-4 tie. The Rockets collected 11 hits compared to Cathedral's 5.

The Rockets finished the season in fine style. Shortridge forfeited their game because of a lack of pitchers. The Carmel Greyhounds were handed a 3-1 loss, and the Rockets overpowered North Central by a score of 6-2.

The reserve baseball team under the skillful coaching of Mr. Bill Sirka compiled an impressive 10-0 record. Strong pitching was mainly responsible for the unbeaten season.

Golf squad completes almost-perfect season

by Dave Gilliom

Compiling a near-perfect record of 17-1-0, the 1961 golf squad completed one of the finest seasons in their history. The only blemish in the team's record came May 5 from the Lebanon squad, which defeated the Rockets 8-7.

The golf squad, newly under the direction of Coach John B. Perry, started the season in winning style by capturing first place in the Fall-County High School golf meet. The team placed a four-man total score of 303, five strokes better than runner-up Washington, and Bill Reichert copped medalist honors. The linksters placed second in their next big meet, the Spring City-County, on May 1. In this contest North Central defeated the Rockets by a slim margin of two strokes.

The squad added to their honors May 11 by winning the Washington medalist play and placing first in their Sectionals the following week. In the State Finals, Washington retaliated by totaling a score of 311 over Broad Ripple's second-place score of 317. North Central's Panthers placed third.

The team was headed by lettermen Ron Frantz, Bill Reichert, Ron Davis, and Steve Johnson.

Practicing at Broad Ripple Park, lettermen Mike Cronin, Bob White, and Dave Lyman round the last turn of the rugged two-mile course.

Faced with a large rebuilding job due to lack of returning lettermen, the varsity cross country team ran away from Tipton, Zionsville, and Decatur Central in their opening meet on September 12. Manual and North Central then evened the record by overcoming the Rockets in a tri-meet. The first dual meet of the season found the Rockets running behind a speedy Southport team, 34-23.

At the Washington Invitational, medalists Mike Ryan, Mike Cronin, and Bob White paced Ripple to fifth place among 15 teams. North Central won the Broad Ripple Invitational; Ripple was second, followed by Tipton, Arlington, and Scecina. Last year the Rockets took all six first places.

At Howe the team registered sixth among 15; they also placed sixth in the City Meet. Cathedral lost to the Leemen in a dual meet as Ryan, Cronin, and White took the first three places. The Rockets finished ninth in the Shortridge Invitational; then, for the second time, Ryan, Cronin, and White swept the top three spots and aided the team in handing Arlington a sound defeat. In the next meet Ryan's first, Cronin's third, and White's fourth sewed up a 26-29 win over Shortridge.

Rocket harriers bested 23 teams at the Sectional and finished tenth. Ryan, in seventeenth place, failed to qualify for the State Meet.

The undermanned Rocket reserve team finished third in their opener with Manual and North Central, and sixth in the Ripple Invitational. They lost to Southport, Cathedral, and Arlington. The freshman team ended up with a 2-1 record in dual meets and tied for seventh in the City Meet.

City Grid Crown eludes

Just out of the Rockets' grasp lay the mythical 1961 City Football Championship. The football team, ranked eighth on both the UPI and AP ratings, lost none of their nine games but were tied three times. The undefeated Cathedral team, which was tied only by the Rockets, captured the coveted crown. The gridsters posted an even better season than in 1957, when Broad Ripple won the City Championship with eight wins and one loss.

On September 8 the Rockets began their impressive campaign by tying Kokomo, 20-20. Halfback Randy Minniear, later to have honor upon honor awarded to him, saved the game. With six minutes left to play, he ran 26 yards for his second touchdown, which tied the score. Rodney Young scored Broad Ripple's other six-pointer.

The Tech Titans were the first to fall under the massive Ripple line by a close score of 7-6. Dennis White scored for Ripple on a one-yard plunge, and Minniear got the extra point. This game was the Rockets' third straight win over Tech.

Scecina was easy prey for the gridsters as Minniear, Young, and Brandt Downey compiled 32 points, compared to the Crusaders' 14.

beaten Richmond, 34-14. The Red Devils, who were previously known for their impressive ground attacks, were forced to the air by the giant Ripple line. In a nineteen-game series this was the seventh Rocket victory. Broad Ripple's points were amassed by Tom Corson, Jay Douthit, Young, and Minniear.

Next on the list of the defeated was Howe, who lost by an overwhelming score of 42 to 0. The outstanding play of the game occurred when Downey intercepted a pass and, with excellent interference, ran 65 yards for a touchdown.

On October 6 the Rockets ruined Washington's home-coming by defeating the Continentals, 40-18. Ripple built up a fabulous rushing advantage of 326 yards, compared to Washington's 30. Minniear crossed the goal line three times, White crossed twice, and Corson crossed once.

The Rockets encountered their second tie in their Home-coming game, October 20. Manual's Chuck Dennison proved to be Ripple's big headache as he scored three times for the Redskins.

fatal to the gridsters. In front of 9,000 spectators first-ranked Cathedral and second-ranked Ripple battled for the City Championship. The Rockets failed to get out of their own territory until the fourth quarter when they rolled 87 yards to score their only touchdown, tying the game, 6-6. Passing was the Rockets' main fault, for they gained only 11 yards in the air, compared to Cathedral's 97. However, on the ground the statistics favored Ripple; the Rockets totaled 149 yards, rushing to Cathedral's 36. Cathedral has not lost a city game since the end of the 1958 season.

Shortridge was the last team to fall to the mighty Rockets. The Blue Devils were beaten on November 3 by a score of 39 to 0, with touchdowns accredited to Minniear, John Ward, Corson, and Young.

All-City ratings were awarded to Backs Randy Minniear and Claude Ford, Linemen Dick Orban and Tim Stanfill, and End Dave Cranfill. Minniear, and Orban also made the All-State team. In addition to his other awards, Minniear was voted by city sports writers as the most valuable player in the city. Tim Meehan received honors for being the team member with the highest grades.

Under Coach Gene Ring the freshmen compiled an impressive 5-2 record. Ripple victories were over Tech, 7-6; Howe, 26-7; Manual, 7-0; Shortridge, 20-7, and Cathedral, 13-7. The freshmen lost to Scecina, 19-13, and Washington, 12-7. Last year Mr. Ring was freshman basketball coach at I. U.

The Rocket reserves completed the season with a 3-4-1 record. Under Coach Earl Dose, last year's freshman football coach, the gridsters defeated Howe, 19-7; Manual, 14-5, and Shortridge, 14-7. The Rockets were defeated by Tech, 0-46; Scecina, 6-19; Washington, 0-19, and Cathedral, 6-38. The reserves tied North Central, 0-0.

Grapplers complete second-best season 8-1

by Steve Goldsmith

Keeping his opponent's head to the mat, Junior Steve Laramore clinches another victory for the Rocket squad and adds another win to his own record.

The 1961-62 Broad Ripple wrestling team posted the second-best record in the school's history by chalking up an impressive eight wins and one loss. This outstanding record was achieved by all-around teamwork with the grapplers proving themselves one of the best complete teams in the state.

Bob Borden was the sole Ripple representative in the State Tournament. Borden, a sophomore, gained the distinction of being the state's third-best wrestler in the 95-pound division. Earning a place in the Finals by finishing first in the Broad Ripple Sectional and placing second in the Regionals, Borden defeated Robert Thomas of Elkhart for his third-place position.

Those leading the team in won-lost records were Borden, with a 17-4 slate; Dick Orban, with a 14-4, and Joe Klein, with a 13-4.

The wrestlers started a five-meet winning streak by defeating Bloomington, 28-19, in their initial encounter. The mat-men then thumped visiting New Albany, 34 to 16; and they continued victorious against city rivals Tech, 30 to 17; Howe, 35 to 17, and Wood, 27 to 23. Washington spoiled the grapplers' chance for a perfect season by defeating them, 21-28. The Rockets bounced back to trample Scecina, 31-11, and Kokomo, 33-11; then, for the second time in two years, they defeated Southport. The Rockets placed second in the City Meet and fourth in the Sectionals.

Mr. Robert Ludlow, in his second year as reserve and freshman coach, guided his teams to three wins each. Four grapplers placed third in the City Meet. They were Gary Olin, Jim Gage, and John Kratz, freshmen, and George Murray, reserve. The reserves posted a 3-3-1 record, with three straight victories over Wood, Howe, and Scecina. Tech, Arlington, and Southport defeated the Rockets; and the tie was at the hands of Kokomo. The freshmen gained wins over Scecina and Howe and a forfeit from Washington. Tech and Eastwood defeated the frosh, bringing their season mark to 3-2.

Gage and Wood led the freshmen in their season match records. Gage posted a fine 3-0 slate with one varsity win. Wood had a 2-1-1 record, but a late season shoulder injury prevented him from wrestling in the City Meet.

Grimacing with pain and frustration, Dick Orban's opponent struggles to free himself from the tight shoulder lock in which he is caught.

Roundballers finish even

by Bob Furlow

Broad Ripple's 1961-62 basketball Rockets finished their first season under Coach Gene Ring with an even 10-10 slate. In a season marked by a new scoring record, a four-game winning streak, and a near upset of the Sectional champ, Attucks, the Orange and Black featured probably the fastest-moving offense in Ripple history. Coach Ring, who came to Broad Ripple from Indiana University, brought the Hurryin' Hoosiers' style of play along with him. Run-and-shoot was the word as the Rockets racked up a 70-point average. Sometimes the team was very good, sometimes very mediocre; but always the Rockets were an interesting and exciting team to watch in action.

After finishing the regular season with a 9-9 mark, the Rockets were all business as they aimed toward the Sectional. In the first game on February 21,

With only 1:20 to go, Attucks led by only four points, but a stolen ball and lay-up put the game out of Ripple's reach.

Outrunning the opposition, the Rockets started the season with a bang by winning their first four contests. Lawrence Central, Decatur Central, Connersville, and Ben Davis each crumbled before the rampaging Rockets. The 101 points scored against Ben Davis made an all-time scoring record.

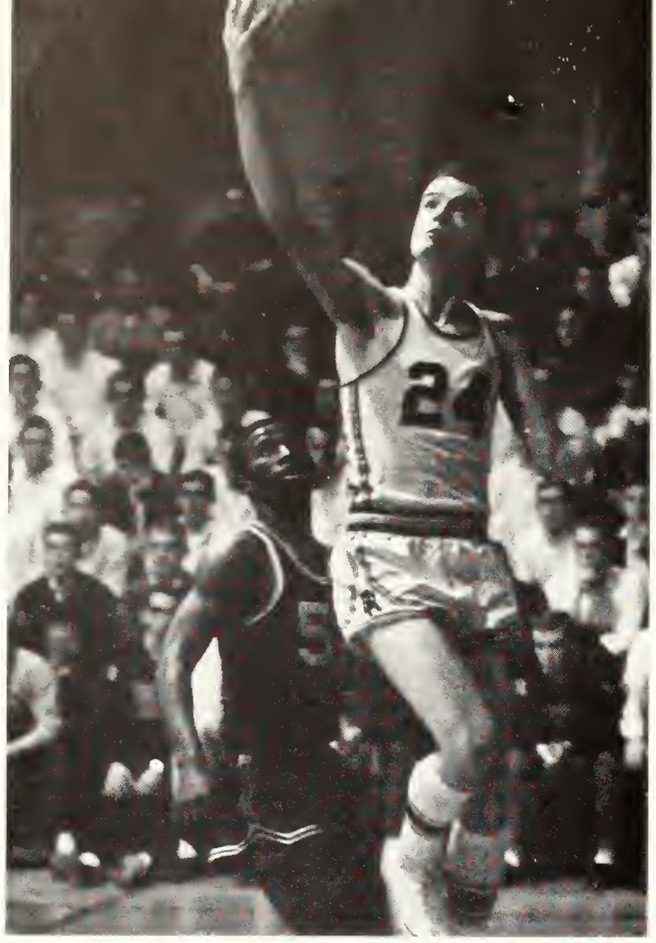
During the Shortridge game at Butler Fieldhouse, Guard Jack Hogan drives through three defenders.



Jumping to assure his shot, Junior Ron Salatich raises the score by two points. Salatich, a six-foot-two-inch forward, was high-point man on the team and a returning letterman from 1961.

In the huddle, Coach Ring instills his players with the fiery enthusiasm necessary to win games. Tom Corson's worried expression shows the concern of team members, who need their coach's sideline advice to play their best.

ington, Southport, Richmond, and Cathedral administered beatings before the Rockets caught Scecina, 71-58, on January 13 and Sacred Heart, 78-59, the following weekend. These victories brought the team record to 7-5. Losses to Washington and North Central, a win over Tech, defeats by Shortridge and Noblesville, and an easy victory over Greencastle wrapped up the schedule.

Juniors Ron Salatich and Bill Brown averaged 16 and 14 points a game, respectively. Toward the season's end Randy Minniear and Steve Schubert were high-point men in several games. Tom Corson, Jack Hogan, and Jay Douthit handled the ball well and were no slackers in the point-scoring business.

The reserve roundballers under Coach Bob Brown had a somewhat disappointing 6-12 record, but four of the losses were by six or fewer points. The high spot of the season was a three-game winning streak in which Richmond, Cathedral, and Scecina fell. High scorers for the reserves were Rick Lee, 193; Carter Jackson, 101, and Jim Tucker, 97.

The freshman basketball team showed promise of good things to come by piling up 12 wins against only 6 losses. An early-season six-game winning streak gave the freshmen, coached by Mr. Bill Jessee, momentum they never lost. One of the frosh's strong points was balanced scoring. Topping the team in points were Alan Cohen with 137, Mike Perry with 108, and Tom Johnson with 101.

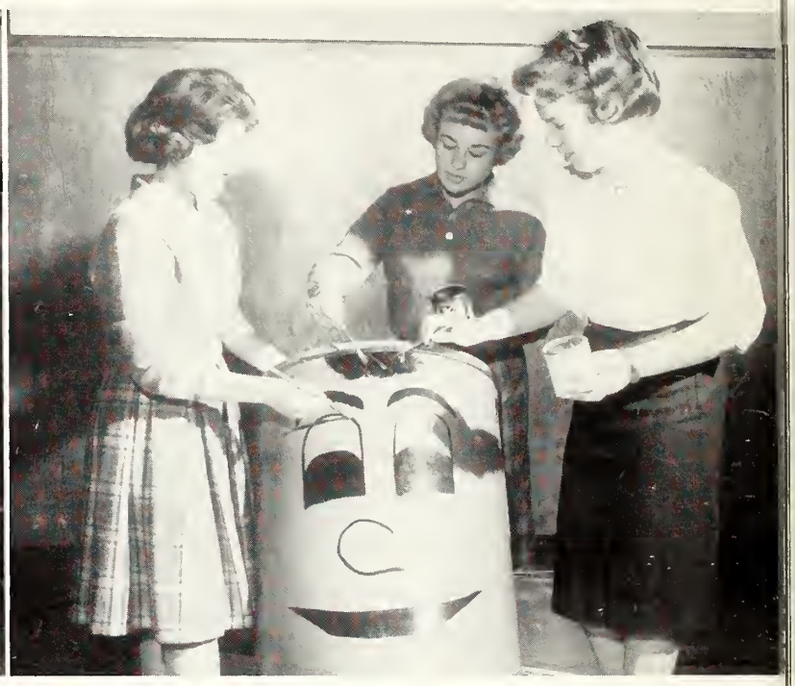
"No man is an island." Human instinct and common interests cause people to form groups for their own advantage and for the good of others. For many years Ripple has promoted social, intellectual, and philanthropic goals in organizational work. One of the first service clubs, Orange Aid, dates back to 1925. For publicity and communication purposes, pupils began to produce the Riparian yearbook in 1926 and newspaper in 1928. Ripple's activity program includes numerous organizations of young, enthusiastic workers receiving valuable training in career fields and in leadership.

ACTIVITIES

High-fashion Ripple models gather for a finale before the curtain falls on the Orange Aid Style Show.

"V-I-C-T-O-R-Y, victory, victory," yell peppy reserve cheerleaders Patty Roberts, Pam Fry, and Margie Stewart as they cheer the Rockets. These energetic girls attend all reserve games to help spark Ripple athletic teams to success.



"Rembrandts" at work, Booster Club officers Judy Griffin, Marty Engleman, and Berta Cheesman give Rippy Rocket a fresh coat of paint. Rippy appears at many basketball and football games to give Ripplites additional support.

Enthusiastic varsity cheerleaders Linda Lewis, Barbara Sink, Kay Seward, Susie McNew (standing), Sandy McCreary, Sally McCreary, and Becky Williams (kneeling), lead Ripple boosters. The responsibilities of head cheerleader, determining chants and cheers to be used during games, rotate each week among the girls on the squad.

Vocal cords, as well as body muscles, "get a workout" in the athletic associations, GAA, Lettermen's Club, and Booster Club, and the cheerleading squads, which promote sportsmanship and physical fitness.

Twelve sports, ranging from badminton to basketball, keep members of the Girls' Athletic Association alert. Under the sponsorship of Miss Barbara Vargo, GAA holds an annual spring track meet.

Ripple boys who have earned a letter in a varsity sport are eligible for membership in Lettermen's Club, sponsored by Mr. Bill Jessee. The group meets regularly to discuss projects, such as the boys' booster block and the traditional spring dance.

Girls in Booster Club, guided by Mr. Arnold Pahmeier, support athletes at football and basketball games. This year their special projects included an after-game sock hop and the provision of new outfits for the cheerleaders.

Leading the student body and booster sections in cheering the Rockets to victory is the job of the varsity and reserve cheerleaders. The girls, directed by Miss Vargo, write yells, practice untiringly, and lead pep sessions, in addition to attending and cheering at all games.

National Honor Society—BACK ROW: T. Parker, B. Smith, R. Winters, F. Kantner, M. Bird, D. McKinley, R. Salatich, M. Lockman, K. Bierman, J. Bishop, M. Cronin, B. Jegen, D. Hamilton, D. Dintaman, B. Vandagriff, A. Monroe, D. Stanton, M. Stranahan, M. Brezinski, P. Hatfield, G. Augustine, J. Clay, I. Gale, B. Rickman, J. Wright, N. Pryor, S. Dwyer, S. Buchanan, K. Groves. FRONT ROW: J. Weninger, S. Harker, L. Parnell, J. Griffin, E. Rees, N. Travis, S. Steininger, J. McClure, S. Wood, S. Lazarus, K. Kessler, J. Emery.

Honorary groups require exemplary character

Junior Historical Society officers—Pam Lassiter, Linda Wolf, William Stone, Thomas Adair.

"Let's make a clean sweep at Ripple!" urge all Student Council members during their annual clean-up campaign. The group, sponsored by Mrs. Marilyn Dearing and Mr. Gene Poston, is the "go-between" for pupils and faculty in school activities. The Council, a participant in the American Field Service program, helps bring a foreign exchange student to Ripple and send a Ripplite abroad.

Junior Historical Society members take pride in their collections of Civil War letters and buttons from presidential campaigns. The honorary organization, guided by Mr. J. Raymond Hall, annually sponsors a weekend trip to Chicago.

Service, leadership, character, and scholarship are the requirements for membership in National Honor Society, sponsored by Miss Margaret Coombs and Mr. Albert Mahin. New members receive notification of their acceptance at an auditorium presented by the club each spring. As a special service project this year, Honor Society gave money for the improvement of mental health.

Service clubs spread goodwill in many realms

Odds and ends make up the Model United Nations costume Katy Kessler models for other Tri-Hi-Y officers Esther Rees, Claudia Dodd, Nancy Tucker, and Sydney Loftin. Model UN is an annual city-wide project of Tri-Hi-Y and Hi-Y.

Service-minded Broad Ripple club members work for the betterment of their school and community and the world in which they live.

Key Club, an honorary boys' club guided by Mr. Warren K. Jackson, helps the school by sponsoring Freshman-Sophomore Career Day and working on many other projects. The boys serve the community by feeding and clothing a needy family and give international aid by sending a ton of food to CARE and supporting Radio Free Europe.

Striving to give "Broader, Richer, Human Service" under the guidance of Mrs. Rosalind Ewing, Orange Aid sponsors an all-girls' auditorium, Fresh Aids, the "big sister" program, Freshman Orientation Tea, carnival style show, and used book store. For this year's philanthropic projects, the girls stuffed envelopes at the TB Center, collected used clothing for the Save-Our-Children Foundation, and wrapped Christmas gifts for mental patients.

Promoting high standards of Christian living is the aim of Hi-Y and Tri-Hi-Y. Both clubs send delegates to a leadership camp, take part in the Model UN, and sponsor the "Mistletoe Madness" Christmas dance. Hi-Y, advised by Mr. Robert Eisenbarth, presents an auditorium; Tri-Hi-Y, guided by Miss Jean Hoilman, collects for Muscular Dystrophy.

"How much profit have we made on our candy sales?" is the question pondered by Hi-Y officers Jim Bishop, John Peine, Mike Lockman, Bill Jegen, and Milton Bird.

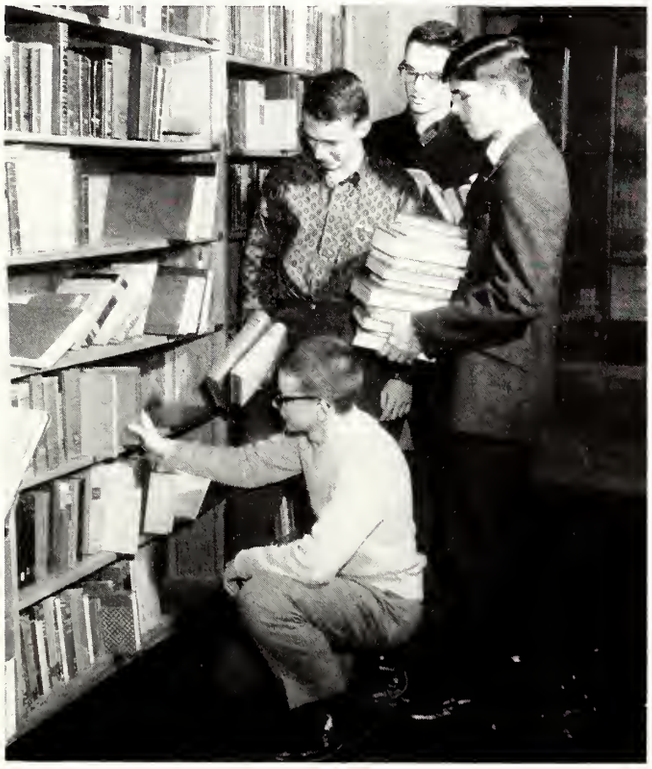
Shelving books in the new library, Key Club officers John Houghton, Bob Forsythe, Ron Salatich, and Dave Gilliom do their share of work as a part of the club's service-in-the-school project.



Sorting clothes, Orange Aid officers Vicki Peterson, Pam Hatfield, Peggy Ballard, and Joanne Reed decide which clothes should be cleaned and pressed before being sent to the needy.

Amid the decorations of their homecoming float entry sit Future Nurses Club officers Judy Kowarsch, Carole Brown, Nancy Riggins, and Elaine Kolb, surveying the field before the parade starts.

High School Red Cross officers Nancy Woolridge, Tobe Stone, Sandy Siegel, and Ricky Weinstein choose posters to promote club activities.

Ripplites examine career

"Read more books to widen your intellectual horizons," say Library Club officers Beth Leamon, Judy Kowarsch, and Elizabeth Shank. Library Club strives to promote reading by means of PA announcements and showcase displays.

To explore vocational possibilities, Ripple pupils participate in career-related activities.

High School Red Cross, advised by Miss Louise Rice, takes part in the national Red Cross drive and works with the adult Civil Defense disaster program in planning for those affected in emergencies. A mock disaster on February 12 tested the pupils' reactions to a highly dangerous situation.

Prospective nurses investigate opportunities in the medical field through the Future Nurses Club, also sponsored by Miss Rice. The year's projects included a flower booth at the APT Carnival and a float in the Homecoming parade.

Understudies, guided by Mrs. Anne Obenchain, encourages individual readings and group skits for interested dramatists. National Thespian Troupe 1170, sponsored by Mrs. Mary Ann Meyer, plans Varsity Varieties and an auditorium. This year Thespians gave "The Happiest Millionaire," a three-act play depicting an eccentric Philadelphia family.

Active in the Hoosier Student Librarian Association, Library Club members under the guidance of Mrs. Phoebe Diederich maintain a library at the Juvenile Aid Center, work in the school library, and sponsor the Literary Christmas Tree Contest.

It's a surprise ending for Ferne Gurvitz, who practices a skit with other Understudies officers Sharon Babcock and Gail Londe.

Planning a display are Foreigneers officers Jeff Smith, Jeri Kaseff, Cheryl Phillips, and Jan Sigurdson.

Puppets amuse Art Club officers Merab Wharton, Sandy Stoker, Sue Steininger, and Bill Cunningham.

Co-curricular activities supplement knowledge

Experiments intrigue Jim Larsen, John Heubi, Milton Bird, and Art Deming, Science Club officers.

While promoting leadership, special interest groups provide education and enjoyment for pupils.

Foreigneers, a language club sponsored by Mrs. Mary K. Jensen, celebrated this year's Roman Saturnalia by exchanging wax images, burning candles, and singing carols in Latin. The club always marks Christmas by feeding a foreign family.

Twirling enthusiasts in Baton Club, directed by Mr. Wallace A. Decker, meet for instruction and practice. The girls utilize their skills in year-round contest competition.

Field trips, experiments, and speeches inspire creativity in Science Club members, who, supervised by Mr. Nino Morone, sponsor a Ripple Science Fair and enter exhibits in the State Science Fair.

Touring the Chicago Institute of Art is a fascinating activity of Art Club members. The group, guided by Miss Doris Brinkman, honors outstanding art majors with individual awards.

Musically talented pupils who join Clef Club "by audition only" work with their sponsor, Mrs. Rosalee Hofmann, to aid Ripple music groups; this year they bought curtains for the orchestra pit.

Musical groups add sprightly note to festivities

There's a song in the air as the musical groups of Broad Ripple blend their voices under the direction of Mr. Gene Poston. The Broad Ripple Choir, composed of Golden Singers and A Cappella, participates in many holiday festivals.

Golden Singers, 44 top-ranking vocalists, present programs for various organizations, in addition to appearing with the A Cappella Choir. Their biggest production of the year was the musical presentation of "Oklahoma!"

With clock-like precision in formation and timing, Broad Ripple's 75-piece marching band struts at every football game. Led by Mr. Wallace A. Decker and Drum Major Dick Bare in 1961-62, the musicians executed intricate patterns. An added attraction was the band's featured twirler, Marilyn Henzie, climaxing her routine with two flaming batons. Veteran's Day, the 500 Festival, and other city parades, an annual auditorium, the Christmas program, the May Festival, and Commencement fill the band calendar. Some of the music-makers attend summer band camp and play in the All-City Band. On Band Day each member sells tags to pupils, teachers, and Broad Ripple citizens and businessmen to raise funds for new equipment.

Broad Ripple's orchestra, directed by Mr. Paul Brown, provides instrumental music for the Christmas program, the May Festival, the annual Orchestra Auditorium, and grade school music festivals. A portion of the orchestra provided the accompaniment for the musical "Oklahoma!" Many talented members play in the All-City Orchestra and enter the State Orchestra Contest.

After-game dances often feature the Dance Band, made up of band and orchestra members. Adding spark and rhythm to pep sessions and basketball games is the Pep Band, composed of Dance Band players and led this year by Mike Lockman.

"Decisions, decisions! Which cover should we choose?" wonder Beth Davis, picture editor, and Jane Clay, editor-in-chief of the 1962 RIPARIAN yearbook.

Laborers strike happy medium of work and fun

All work and no play would make Riparanites and their publications dull. Work and fun combined to create the 1962 yearbook.

Extensive work began last summer when six staff members, four of whom won awards, attended journalism institutes at four midwestern universities. When school resumed in the fall, the staff tackled the problems of producing a book. Planning a "dummy," setting style, writing and fitting copy, arranging and proportioning pictures, and checking and rechecking proofs filled many hours.

Efforts paid dividends for the workers in satisfaction and enjoyment. The noise of staff parties, the laughter in appreciation of private jokes, and the sighs of relief when deadlines were met were part of the fun.

Looking back, staffers and their sponsors, Mrs. Ruth Marie Griggs and Mrs. Julia Jean Rhodes, view past achievements. The yearbook has won the National Scholastic Press Association's All-American rating for 13 consecutive years and the Columbia University Annual Press Contest's Medalist rating for 5 consecutive years.

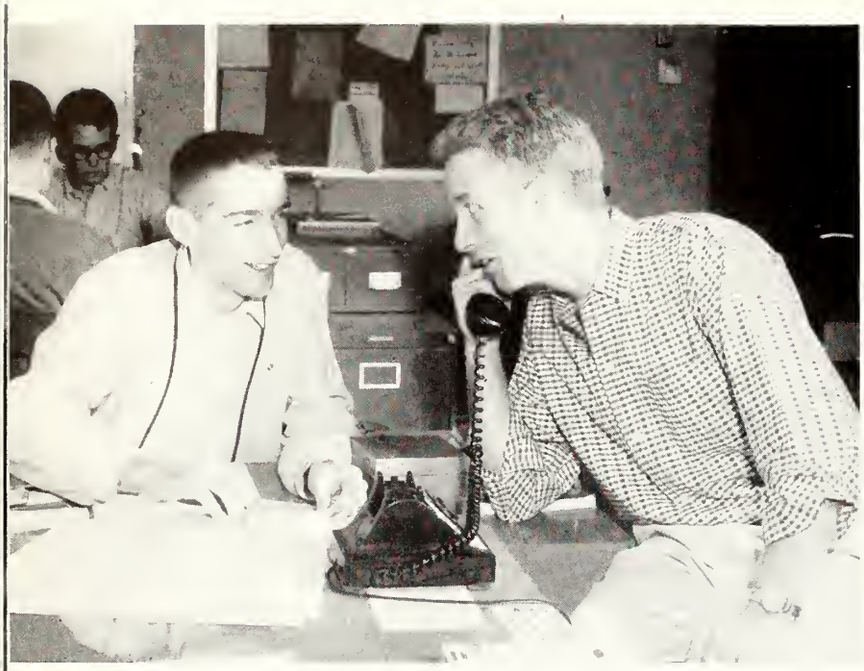
Biweekly cycle keeps staff on track of news



Checking with the printer are Andy McCuen, newspaper editor, and Tom Merrill, managing editor.

Printer's ink runs in the veins of Riparian newspaper staffers, who speak a strange language sprinkled with journalistic expressions and think in terms of "news pegs" and "deadlines." The skill and cooperation of the entire staff and the guidance of their sponsors, Mrs. Ruth Marie Griggs and Mrs. Julia Jean Rhodes, combine in the production of an award-winning biweekly newspaper.

Work on each issue begins when Riparian reporters cover their assigned "beats" and write the information received from news sources into stories. Completed stories go to the copy desk to be read, corrected, and headlined. Editors and sponsors give them a careful check and then send them to the printer, along with advertisements and pictures which have been "cropped" and described in "cutlines".

The printer returns the copy and pictures on galley sheets for proofreading and checking. After correcting mistakes, page editors pin the proofs in the allotted spaces on tentative page layouts which they have planned. At last the entire paper goes back for its final printing, and staff members start working on the next issue.

Planning and puzzling over a layout for an issue of the Riparian newspaper, Tom Royer, Dave Hamilton, Dee Stanton, Mike Cronin, and Rick Coble perform their duties as page editors.

Red, white, and black ribbons tied around pen points appear twice yearly on the collars of outstanding Riparian yearbook, newspaper, news bureau, and photography staff members. These journalists wear the symbol of membership in Ripple's chapter of Quill and Scroll, an international high school honorary society. Sponsored by Mrs. Ruth Marie Griggs, the organization is host to new junior and senior members at biannual induction ceremonies and to the Riparian staffs at a holiday party.

One branch of the Riparian, the circulation staff, represents the publications to the student body by acquainting pupils with subscription values, making sales, and distributing the newspaper and yearbook. Circulation workers boost their active sales campaign with an auditorium, this year based on the theme "Rippy Rocket, This Is Your Life!"

Photo staff, under the guidance of Mrs. Julia Jean Rhodes, provides many of the candid pictures used by the newspaper, yearbook, and news bureau. Ripple's "shutter-snappers" work in a modern, well-equipped laboratory, using enlargers of varied sizes and four types of cameras.

News bureau correspondents to the Indianapolis newspapers receive practical experience in journalism while they keep citizens in the community aware of Broad Ripple's sports, activities, achievements, and outstanding pupils.

"Here's a gimmick to boost sales," decide Karen Averitt, Ilse Bried, Charles Meyer, and Peg Ballard.

75TH ANNIVERSARY

A panorama of faces, those of 1,568 pupils, 82 faculty members, and 50 staff workers, greets visitors to Ripple. In 1923 there were only 94 pupils and 8 teachers; by 1942 the count had risen to 853 pupils and 39 teachers. No matter the number, Ripple's shifting maze of people has always prevented the school from aging. Ripplites keep their school young and sprightly while gaining maturity from their experiences with other people. For 75 years pupils have passed through Ripple, learning to see themselves more clearly in the reflections of friends.

Realizing that they should know about their new school, Freshmen Mike Boyd and Steve Nealon study Ripple's history and acquaint themselves with the school's background and traditions.

75TH ANNIVERSARY

In exchange for the trade and advertisement teenagers give their stores, businessmen accommodate pupils by catering to their special needs and desires. In the Broad Ripple community, advertisers have maintained this friendly reciprocation through periods of profit and crisis. When Glendale and other shopping centers began to develop, Ripple merchants revitalized their area. Today the keen business competition in the school's vicinity ensures co-operative service for a mushrooming community, which has grown from a village of 487 in 1900 to a metropolitan area of 34,280.

75 Years Old?

After a year of working on the 1962 Riparian Yearbook, the editors feel at least 75 years old. They suffered anguish when headlines didn't fit, horror when they discovered a deadline was two weeks past and unmet, and terror when their sponsors, Mrs. Ruth Marie Griggs and Mrs. Julia Jean Rhodes unleashed their anger in the direction of Room 92. But despite broken windows, clocks, and glue pots, yearbook production was interesting and exciting work. The joy of the editors when the last picture was sent to the engraver and the last piece of copy was sent to the printer was overwhelming.

As in past years, this Riparian could not possibly have been published without the kind and patient help of Mr. Richard Brier, representative for both Associates Engraving Company and Benton Review Publishers. Mr. Brier's pictures may be seen throughout the book, especially in the opening section.

The seal which appears on the cover and division pages was created through the joint efforts of Mr. Brier, the art department of Smith Craft Cover Company, and yearbook staff members.
